

October 26, 2020

Biden campaign has outraised, outspent Trump

Compared with the Trump campaign, in September the Biden campaign raised more than three times as much, spent more than twice as much and had nearly three times as much cash left over, according to the FEC. The figures do not reflect money raised and spent by political action committees supporting the candidates.

Source: Federal Election Commission