

June 24, 2021

Vaccine tracker: 65.6% of U.S. adults have received first dose

65.6% of American adults have received at least one Covid-19 vaccine dose, according to CDC data as of the morning of June 23. 56.1% have been fully vaccinated.

319.9M vaccine doses have been administered as of June 23

150.8M total Americans, or 45.4 percent, are fully vaccinated

*The vaccine manufacturer was not reported for about 67,000 vaccine recipients, according to the CDC.

Source: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Politico staff reports